Yadkin Valley Economic Development District, Inc.

Organized in 1965, the YVEDDI is a private non-profit corporation designated as the local Community Action Agency which administers Human Services and Community Development Programs funded through Federal, State, County Governments, United Ways, and other resources.

Laws, regulations, and funds limit all services provided.

Self-Sufficiency Program

The Self-Sufficiency Program is designed to assist eligible and qualified individuals/families to overcome poverty and become economically self-sufficient.

Our service model assists customer's to obtain a higher education, gain employment in jobs paying a "living wage", meet challenges related to transportation and child care, and to empower themselves in the process of becoming self-reliant.

Domestic Violence Program

The Domestic Violence Programs are operated in the counties of Stokes, Surry, and Yadkin.

The major focus of services is to provide emergency services and assistance to persons who have been victimized by domestic violence.

Basic services provided by programs in each county are as follows: 24-hour emergency crisis line, court accompaniment, advocacy, off-site shelter, trained volunteers, community education, professional training, DV Program Advisory Council, and local Domestic Violence Program Office. Funded by the N.C. Council for Women, United Ways, United Funds, and Counties.

 Surry County (336) 443-4030
 Yadkin County (336) 849-4070

Regular Head Start (336) 367-4993

Head Start prepares children for Kindergarten in 5 Star licensed centers and works with the family to promote self-sufficiency. The program operates from August through May serving 385 children ages 3 to 5 years in Davie Stokes, Surry and Yadkin counties. Operational hours are 8:00 to 2:30 Monday through Friday. Unlike many pre-kindergarten programs, child medical and dental services, and individualized family support is included, as well as services to children with special needs, nutritious meals and snacks, professional staff, and transportation as feasible. All services are free to families who meet federal income guidelines. Funded by the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Division of Public Health, and local support.

Migrant Head Start (336) 367-3450

Operates from June through October for ages 6 weeks to 5 years. Provides comprehensive family support and child development services for 65 children of Migrant Farm workers who have moved to Surry or Yadkin County within the last 24 months; and for seasonal families who no longer move but continue to work in agriculture as their main source of income. Funded by East Coast Migrant Head Start Project.

NC Pre-Kindergarten

Through meeting higher standards of quality, Head Start partners with the North Carolina Pre-Kindergarten Program (NCPK). The additional funding has enabled Head Start to lower child/staff ratios, extend services from 160 to 180 days per school year, and pay for higher qualified teachers, a proven indicator in helping children enter school ready to learn. 17 of our 22 Head Start classrooms are also NCPK sites with funding for approximately 146 four-year old, dually enrolled children.

L.H. Jones Family Resource Center

Retired and Senior Volunteer Program

RSVP recruits, places, and supports older citizens as volunteers in humanitarian pursuits effecting measurable improvements in community life in Davie, Surry, and Yadkin Counties. RSVP serves to "engage persons 55 and older in volunteer service to meet critical community needs and to provide a high quality experience that will enrich the lives of volunteers". RSVP fulfills this function by matching recruited seniors with service providers whose missions are compatible with these aspiring volunteers' interests, abilities, and desired levels of challenge. RSVP provides enrolled volunteers with technical support, insurance coverage, limited mileage reimbursement, and recognition for their contributions.
